

Black River Falls Library
DVD Thumbnail Newsletter
Vol. 2 - Issue 3 Sept., 2009

This is a month of many holidays and anniversaries. Starting on the 7th we have Labor Day; the 11th is Patriot's and Service Day; the 13th is Grandparents Day; the 17th is Constitution Day; and the 21st is Peace Day. Believe it or not the Library has a DVD for each one of those holidays or anniversaries. There are 99 different mediums for Labor Day.

Backdraft 1991 R 138min Imagine/Universal

This is an award winning DVD that portrays the daily problems in the life of many Firemen. It has a good plot and an award winning cast. Remember, in the time of crisis, the Fireman is the one heading into danger. 5 star

World Trade Center 2006 PG13 128min Paramount

The story of two brothers who are Port Authority policemen at the World Trade Center, and their families in New York City on 11 September. All star cast gives an emotional performance. 4 star

Jakers! Treasure hunt on Raloo Farm 2008 Paramount

This is only one of 3053 titles available for Grandparents and kids to take part in. Have a great day! Share! 5 star

A conversation on the constitution: Judicial Independence 2006
32 min Annenberg Foundation Trust

Enshrined in our system of government is the guarantee of judicial independence. Well presented to the high school and above public, three Supreme Court Judges talk about the guarantee written 233 years ago that is still working today. 5 star

The Inn of Sixth Happiness 1986 PG 158 min 20th Century Fox

This is the story of Gladys Aylward (Ai wah-day) an English parlor maid who believed that we are all responsible for each other. She went to China to be a missionary, telling of her belief, and in 1938 when she was 34, she led 100 children over mountains and enemy held territory to safety. An all star cast and award winning DVD. 5 star