

This month the holidays are: Pearl Harbor Day (7th), Winter Solstice (22nd), and Christmas (25th) and New Year's Eve (31st).

“The dogmas of the quiet past are inadequate to the stormy present. The occasion is piled high with difficulty, and we must rise with the occasion. As our case is new, so we must think anew, and act anew. We must disenthrall ourselves, and then we shall save our country”. ---Abraham Lincoln

Tuskegee Airmen 2001 PG13 106 min HBO Entertainment

They came from all across America- college graduates all - to learn how to fly for America, during WWII, And fly they did! 450 men earned 850 medals and never lost a bomber they were assigned to protect. All star cast! 5 Star

Greatest Christmas Classics 2009 NR 2 disc set Warner Bros.

Four Christmas films that set the tone for Christmas, the shortest one is 69 min. and the one that has become the most famous. All are B&W, all have all star casts and all are well worth the watching. 5 Star

Switch 2010 PG13 101 min Lionsgate

She wanted a baby and since she wasn't married, she decided to go the donor route; but Fate intervened and her best friend became a donor. From there on it's a beautiful love story. 4+Star

The Story of Ruth 2006 NR 131 min. 20th Century Fox

From the time of her childhood, she might have been protected by God to become the wife of Boaz, so that the House of David might grow. Truly a classic 5 Star

Lost Horizon 2011 G 149 min Columbia Pictures

A classical musical version of James Hilton's book, this DVD is an award winning film that portrays a group of survivors learning about peace, serenity, compassion and love. All star cast. 5 Star

CD Time-Life Treasury of Christmas 1987

Classic Christmas music by various vocal artists makes this a great listening adventure for everyone. 5 Star

