"What do Friends do?"

- Raise funds for special projects
- Coordinate annual Book Sale
- Help with library programs
- Volunteer for special events
- Tutor for "Reading is Power"
- Become library advocates
- Promote community awareness of the library.

Some Friends are deeply involved; some simply lend moral support. All have the satisfaction of knowing they have joined with others to help demonstrate support for the Black River Falls Public Library.

Membership dues and donations from Friends are used to enhance and promote library resources and services including:

- Adult and children's programs
- Summer reading incentives
- Mini-Golf @ the Library Event
- Antique Appraisal Event
- Jackson County Reads
- Author presentations and book discussions
- Adult Literacy program, "Reading is Power"
