

Fiber Arts Demonstration

Wool and Felt Applique

Wednesday, February 6
Noon to 2 p.m.

Debbie Sutton, lives on a farm in the Alma Center area, loves all kinds of needlework and will be demonstrating the art of felt/wool applique on a door hanger. Debbie has taught crocheting, quilting and wood carving in the past and most recently wool applique classes at the Augusta Senior Center. There will be numerous wool applique items on display during this fiber arts session. Everyone is welcome to come see what wool applique is all about.
