The 2024 Jackson County Community Read came to a close on April 9. The Library hosted a VIP author lunch, giving guests a chance to chat with Sue Berg in small groups. Sue spoke at Lunda Theater in the evening and brought her newest book available for purchase and signing. 'Driftless Insurrection' is the fifth book in her Driftless series, and the Library will have a copy available soon! The Community Read is a wonderful program, sponsored by the Friends of the Black River Falls Public Library and organized this year by Friends Chairperson Joan Zenz, Taylor Public Library Director Barb Brueggen, Library Board member Grady Gutknecht, Library Services Coordinator Vicki Fisher, and Library Assistant Martha Rhead.

from Melody Gesicki, Youth Services

Born to Read, LEGO Club, and Storytime are on a break for the months of May and June as Melody will be visiting local schools, head starts & daycares in Jackson County. The Summer Reading Program will start June 17. The calendar of events for the summer programs will be available the beginning of June.

I attended the Wisconsin State Genealogical Society's Gene-A-Rama on April 12 and 13 in Oshkosh. The focus was on Writing and Sharing Your Family History. Renee Garrick (known as The Grammar Queen) made presentations, along with Chuck Pankratz, Russell Horton, and Andrew Natvig. It was an enjoyable conference and hearing from experts in various fields of genealogy was enlightening. I certainly welcome you to stop in and discuss one or more of the topics presented.

Volunteer Sarah Larkin and I will make a presentation on Writing Your Obituary to the Aging Gracefully event sponsored by Interfaith Volunteers and the Aging & Disability Resource Center of Jackson County on May 15. We presented this PowerPoint at a library program last fall and received positive comments. I should add that this was one of the presentations made at Gene-A-Rama by Renee Garrick. Looking over Sarah's and my PowerPoint, I think we have covered the same areas.

Another reminder that with Memorial Day coming up, and visits being made to area cemeteries, I try to keep an up-to-date list of contacts for area cemeteries. If you would like your name added to the list, please give me a call, or send me an email. The History Room has many resources available to those seeking obituaries and cemetery locations.

Just a reminder that I am always open to suggestions for programming. If you have a topic you would like to have a presentation on, please let me know. The History Room is open on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday from 11-4:30 or other times by appointment. Call me at 715-284-4112, #3 or email me at m.woods@wrlsweb.org.
